

Friends of the Olympia Library

To support, promote and augment the operations of the Olympia Library.

What do the Friends do for the Library?

- Fund programs for Library users: Including summer reading programs, author events, books for teen and adult book clubs
- Purchase large-ticket items for the Library: Has included furniture in the Atrium, the dishwasher and stove for Staff kitchen, CD shelving units, a new Library PA system
- Buy the little things that make the Library run like a well-oiled machine: a coffee maker for the Staff kitchen, care and watering of plants, puppets and toys for children's story times

Check us out online @ www.olympiafriends.com

How do the Friends raise funds?

- Memberships! Join the Friends and your dues will go directly toward the Library.
- Book Sales: Three Giant Book Sales each year (in Feb., June & Oct.) and the ongoing sale inside the Library
- Annual Art Show and Sale: Local artists get a chance to display and sell their work and share profits with the Friends, this year's show is Nov. 20 at the North Olympia Fire Station

How can you support the Friends?

- Become a member: by mail, online, or in the Library
- Support the Book Sales: donate books (1 to 1 million) by bringing them to the Library, we can even pick up books, and buy books at the sales ($1 for hardcovers, 50¢ for paperbacks, and 25¢ for children's)
- Purchase our Note Cards: featuring the beautiful Mimi Williams print you see on all the Friends' publications

What do you get with Friends membership?

- Monthly meetings: The Friends meet every third Tuesday of the month from 12-1 p.m. in the Meeting Room.
- Notes Between Friends: our quarterly newsletter highlighting Library events and Friends accomplishments
- Early admission to the Giant Book Sales: 8-10 a.m. on the Saturday of the sale
